REPUBLICANS DID IT.

They Elected a Democrat to the Office of County Drain Commissioner.

DEMOCRATS ARE INDIGNANT.

Because Supervisor Beistle Resigned from the Board to Take Drain Commissionership.

The board of supervisors this morning gave the office of county drain commissioner to a democrat. It elected J. B. Beistle, of Buchanan, to that office. Mr. Beistle resigned his position on the board of supervisors to accept the drain commissionership. George A. Carrell, of Buchanan, and J. W. Reynolds, both republicans, were chosen as superintendents of the poor, the former to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Freeman Franklin, and the latter to succeed himself.

There is indignation among the democrats over Beistle's resignation. It gives the republicans a majority on the board and as the Buchanan village board, which has before it the election of a man to succeed Beistle, is republican it goes without saying that Beistle's successor will be a republican, this creating among the supervisors a republican majority of two.

The democratic supervisors caucused yesterday and decided on Beistle for drain commissioner. It was later discovered that a supervisor could not hold that office and Stephen Harner, an Oronoko township democrat, was picked out for the place. Beistle was very cunningly approached by the republican members of the board and induced to resign the office of supervisor, upon the assurance that if his democratic friends went back on him by reason of this action they (the republicans) would throw their support to him and elect him to the office of drain commissioner. Beistle yielded and yesterday telephoned his resignation to the Buchanan town board.

Supervisor Keith, a prominent democrat, was angered beyond control over Beistle's attitude, and publicly declared he would not support a man with so little political honor as Beistle exhibited. Others of the democrats were sore and frankly expressed a purpose to exert themselves to defeat Beistle.

When the nominations for drain commissioner were declared in order the situation was further complicated by the presentation of Mr. Burbank's name, the republican incumbent of the office. It was hard for some of the republicans to convince themselves that they ought to vote for Beistle when a republican candidate was up. The first ballot elected Beistle, he receiving 18 votes, Burbank 10, Harner 1, Glavin 1 and Jennings 1. It is considered that Beistle owes his election to the republicans.

The report of the superintendents of the poor was accepted this morning.

The finance committee continues its merciless slashing of justices' and constables' claims. Chief Stuckey had a bill of $7.75 that was allowed at 50 cents; Deputy Sheriff Sherwood's bill of $129.91 was shaved down to $107.80; Deputy Sheriff Stowe suffered a cut of $26.75; a bill of $21.15 presented by J. L. Emmons was reduced to $15.64.

The county superintendents of the poor yesterday submitted their report for the year ending October 1, 1897. It classifies the inmates of the county house for the year as follows: Males, 50; females, 22; under 16 years, 3; insane, 10; idiots, 5; blind, 1; mute, 2; births, 1; deaths, 7; average number, 42; present number of inmates, 37; males, 19; females, 18. The total receipts are given at $7,149.97; total expenses, $5,466.08; balance, $1,683.29; total expense of maintaining county and farm, $3,284.30; other expenses including temporary relief, transportation to and from county house, superintendents services and improvements, $2,182.38; cost of maintaining each pauper, $1.63.

The sum of $1,692.19 was spent for temporary relief of the poor outside of the county house and of this sum $600.65 was expended for medical attendance and only $44.49 for clothing. $684.91 for food, $123.03 for fuel, $84.50 for funerals, $93.55 for transportation, $38 for supervisors services and $42.61 for miscellaneous; amount of relief to township poor reported by supervisors, $4,375.86; amount expended for support of township poor at the county house, $1,667.27. The property at the county house inventories $33,344.94. The farm and buildings is valued at $26,500.

The superintendents recommend the building of a hospital for cases of contagious diseases. Some very heavy expenses were thrust upon the county in caring for typhoid fever cases that could not be taken to the county house on account of having no accommodations. The proposed building, a two room structure, would relieve this condition. The appropriation of $4,000 for next year's work is recommended.

WERE EXCITED

Supervisors Startled When Read "The News."

Members of the board of supervisors were in an excited mood last night when they read in THE EVENING NEWS how they had been held up maliciously or unwittingly for $16.50 by the St. Joseph Press for a bill that the county had paid four months before.

The members are trying to dodge the responsibility. The clerk was called upon this morning for an explanation and it was clearly shown that the responsibility of the steal rested on the board and not on the clerk. The duplicate bill bore the "O K" of the clerk while the original was never endorsed by the clerk.

About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the clerk was surprised when a reporter for THE NEWS informed him of the discovery. He looked up the matter at once and found the statements as given by THE NEWS to be correct. The discovery of this steal will doubtless save the county many hundred dollars. THE NEWS is receiving many congratulations on its good work.

MAY BE ILLEGAL.

ELECTION OF J. B. BEISTLE TO THE DRAIN COMMISSIONERSHIP.

Thought He Will Have Trouble in Getting Possession of the Office.

Some of the supervisors declare that the election of Supervisor J. B. Beistle as drain commissioner is illegal. It is claimed that though he resigned as supervisor he legally holds the office until his successor qualifies and that he was not eligible to election as drain commissioner.

It is believed that Drain Commissioner Burbank will refuse to surrender the office to Beistle January 1, 1898, when his term expires, and that he will require Beistle to resort to legal proceedings to get possession of the office.

HOME FOR $20,000.

Hon. Edwin F. Uhl Sells His Residence in Grand Rapids to a Manistee Lumberman.

ODD CHARLOTTE MAN DEAD.

The Governor Has Refused to Register But Declares He Will Vote or Know Why.

GRAND RAPIDS, Oct. 15.—Hon. Edwin F. Uhl has sold his handsome residence on Fountain street to John Canfield, the Manistee millionaire lumberman. The deal was made Wednesday afternoon and the contract price was $20,000. This settles the question of the future residence of Mr. Uhl and his family.

It has been stated that their home would continue to be in Grand Rapids, but the sale of the property shows that they will move to Chicago. Mr. Canfield has been contemplating moving to Grand Rapids for some months and has negotiated for the purchase of various large residences.

PINGREE WILL VOTE.

Though He Refused to Register His Name.

DETROIT, Oct. 15.—When the registration book closed at 9 o'clock Wednesday night in the little sheet iron house at the corner of Warren avenue and Brush street it did not contain the name of his excellency, Hazen S. Pingree, governor of Michigan, and members of the registration board said that it would be out of the question for him to vote in the forthcoming election. Nevertheless the said Hazen S. Pingree avows that he will offer his ballot in the aforesaid little sheet iron house on election day, and if it is not accepted he will know the reason why.

QUEER CHARLOTTE MAN.

He Watched Himself Die in a Mirror.

The late Dr. Tyler H. Hull of Charlotte who, two months ago, sat up in bed and watched himself in the mirror while dying until a few seconds before he expired, was a very eccentric as well as philanthropic individual, possessing many peculiar characteristics that were noticeable in nearly every important event of his life. His will has been admitted to probate and one provision is that if his estate foots up to $40,000, a $10,000 granite monument shall be erected over his grave within a year from the date of his death. The executors of the estate, although not yet through with appraising, have invoiced real and personal property to the amount of $42,000. Dr. Hull was satisfied with the plain necessities of life and he accumulated all his estate by hard work. His bequest for such an expensive monument is a surprise to his family and friends. An effort will be made to have the peculiar provision set aside.

A remarkable career was brought to a close by the death of ex-Senator Charles W. Jones of Florida in Saint Joseph's retreat at Dearborn, Mich., this week. A few years ago the Detroit papers were full of his strange doings. He came to Detroit to make a speech in the Irish cause and became infatuated with Miss Clotilde Palms, who did not favor his attentions. However, he stayed in Detroit, entirely neglecting his official duties at Washington, and allowed his term as United States senator to expire without heeding the appeals to return to Florida, where a re-election awaited him. After that his mind gradually failed.

Governor Pingree has commuted to imprisonment in Detroit house of correction the sentences of Eda Hatton, Mary Mead and Sarah Vail, convicted in Cass county of keeping a house of ill-fame, incest and man-slaughter, respectively. All were sent to state prison, but there are no accommodations there for women.

The Niles council has passed to the second reading an ordinance abolishing the board of public works, because it refuses to heed the demands of Mayor F. W. Richter, and transact business independently of the council.

George Dutch, of Niles, has purchased four acres of marsh land, which he will turn into a frog farm, from which he will supply the market. It is the only frog farm in this part of the state.

William A. Reddick, of Niles, has been granted a patent on a potato scoop.

The Most Costly Fruits.

Hothouse grapes are the costliest of fruits. They are never less than 75 cents a pound, and when they are most costly, in February and March, they sell for $9 a pound, sometimes going as high as $10 a pound. At prices ranging up to $2 a pound there is a ready sale for them. At the higher prices they are sold almost exclusively for the use of invalids. There is a sale for all that are produced, but the production is great, and the vines may die from exhaustion after a single season of forcing.

The next most costly fruit is the hothouse peach. Hothouse peaches sell in February at $2.50 each. They are used mainly by invalids, but such peaches are also often sold for gifts. They are presented as flowers or as bouquets would be. Three or four peaches are packed in cotton and sent with a few peaches in a hothouse box. Hothouse

PROSECUTIONS FOR CHARGE IN THE BICKNESS FAMILY.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—The flood of oratory continued in the Luetgert trial yesterday. Attorney Phalen, for the defense, concluded his address after speaking two hours in the morning, and then Attorney Vincent began the closing address in behalf of the defendant. The main point of his argument was to raise in the minds of the jury a doubt as to whether Mrs. Luetgert is really dead. In elaborating the point the advocate said: "Gentlemen of the jury, was Mrs. Louise Luetgert alive on May 2, or is she dead? Is Luetgert guilty or is he innocent? I think, it was Juror Boyd who, when asked nearly two months ago if he thought Mrs. Luetgert dead, and if he thought Luetgert had killed her, replied: 'One depends very largely upon the other.' That was aptly put."

"Mr. McEwen has said that people do not disappear of their own volition now-a-days. Is the telegraph any more trustworthy or serviceable today than when Friedrich Bicknese tried to discover Henry Bicknese, the brother of Mrs. Luetgert, when he disappeared mysteriously twenty-two years ago?"

"I object to that," interrupted Assistant State's Attorney McEwen. "There is no evidence to support that statement."

"Oh, but there is," retorted ex-Judge Vincent, and he picked up the type written copy of evidence and read the paragraph which sustained him. Then he went on to declare that disappearances are not unusual. "Who dare say with positiveness that reaches beyond reasonable doubt that Mrs. Luetgert is dead?" queried the speaker. "None of the Bicknese family knows today whether Henry Bicknese is dead or alive. He disappeared twenty-two years ago. He is or was, as the case may be, brother of Mrs. Luetgert."

GREATER NEW YORK CAMPAIGN.

United Democracy Denounces George and Names Another Man.

New York, Oct. 15.—The principal political events of yesterday were Former Postmaster Charles W. Dayton's acceptance of the nomination for comptroller on the Henry George ticket, Mayor Strong's first speech for Seth Low, in which he resented "the interference of the national administration" in the Greater New York campaign (being a letter from Secretary of the Interior Bliss, endorsing Tracy), and Tammany Hall's ratification meeting, which was neither so well attended nor so enthusiastic as the leaders had hoped it would be. The Citizens' Union holding numerous meetings and Henry George is about to take the stump.

Seth Low yesterday entertained Lord Kelvin, the famous British scientist. Last night he addressed 5,000 enthusiastic people at the Claremont Avenue rink, Brooklyn. Charles S. Fairchild was the principal speaker at a big Citizens' Union meeting. John DeWitt Warner spoke at another Seth Low meeting. The Henry George committee issued an appeal to the public for funds. The United Democracy, whose nomination Henry George accepted and then declined, met and denounced him. Alfred W. Cruikshank for mayor will head the United Democracy ticket.

And Didn't Mob a Man.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 15.—The eleventh annual convention of the Illinois Anti-Horse Thief association adjourned yesterday to meet here in October, 1908. One hundred delegates were present, representing eighty lodges and 4,000 members. The association during the past year recovered twelve stolen horses and secured the conviction of fifty men. New officers are: President, Stanfield Baldwin, Jacksonville; secretary, J. Waldo Wilson, Prairie City.

North Carolina Town Fire-Swept. Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 15.—The city of Durham was yesterday visited by the most destructive fire in its history. Seven four-story wooden prize-houses filled with tobacco and eight dwellings were destroyed. The total loss is $250,000, with $200,000 insurance.

REV. SAHLIN'S PLAY.

"The Story of Old Glory" Successfully Introduced at Conkey's Last Evening.

A LARGE AUDIENCE PLEASSED.

Feature of the Drama is its Many Tableaux—In Love, not War. Uncle Sam Falls Down.

"The Story of Old Glory," the spectacular drama written by the Rev. George A. Sahlin, pastor of the Universalist church of this city, was successfully presented before a large audience at Conkey's hall last evening.

The play is one of striking originality and is pleasing and inspiring. The production is rich in striking and easily interpreted tableaux and all the music and the verses give opportunity for the exercise of such excellent talent as appeared in the introduction of the drama last night.

The curtain rose in the first act on a tableau representing America before the coming of Columbus. A savage Indian stood upon a desolate plain, and in his wild and satanic vision could be read, "I am monarch of all I survey." This pretty scene was followed in quick succession by three other tableaux, "Columbus and Isabella," "Discovery of America," and "The American Welcome." This was followed by a male quartet composed of Fred A. Hobbs in the pride and voice and garb of an Englishman, E. C. Edmunds in the handsome attire of the Spanish court, Prof. Kneeland as a Dutchman and greatly resembling the old days of Castle Garden, and the fourth in the quartet of nations was France represented by Theodore Rahn. The love making and love rejecting scene in the first act was the only tinge of romance in the piece. Uncle Sam (Floyd Daigneau) in song invited Miss Columbia (Miss Adeline Graves) to become Mrs. Uncle Sam. Coquettishly Miss Columbia suggested in her answer song that she must first ask her mother and then she compromised with the promise to be his sister. The curtain of the act fell upon two tableaux. One was Mrs. Ross (Mrs. Soule) exhibiting for the first time Old Glory, the flag she had designed and made with its thirteen stars and the other a picture of Washington draped with the stars and stripes and guarded by two sentinels, Frankie Soule with a musket and little Gretchen Sahlin.

The states of the union were each represented by a young lady. As Uncle Sam called the roll of the state the young ladies entered the stage one by one and gave the date when the state they represented was admitted to the union. The territories were represented by soloists who sang about the territory they represented. Miss Myrtle Walker sang of New Mexico, Mrs. Harry Ely, dressed in costume trimmed with native grains and grasses represented Arizona, Miss Josephine Hansen attired in the costume of an Esquimaux, which was charmingly becoming, sang of Alaska and advised the Klondike-struck to "hoof it." Miss Katherine Hansen, dressed in a short skirt, wearing a cowboy hat and carrying a cattle whip represented Oklahoma and Mrs. S. A. Burnham disguised as an Indian squaw sang to the glory of Indian territory. All were applauded.

In the second and third acts the story of the secession, the war, the reunion is told. The most thrilling part of the play came in the second act in the dialogue song when Miss Columbia sang patriotic defiance at the Spirit of Secession (Fred A. Hobbs) who appeared and sang his siren song of disloyalty in the ears of listening states.

The play teaches the history of our own country as books cannot do. That history is brought down to the present. Miss Ida Bridgman represented Hawaii and pleaded for the protection of Old Glory. The appeal was applauded but a greater demonstration was provoked when Miss Ida Edgecombe, embassy from Cuba declared that the people of her island would be the happiest in the world as soon as liberty dawned for them.

The Alger guard appeared on the stage and were drilled by Lieutenant Pound and started for the war. Mrs. F. B. Christopher was the pianist.

The drama will be repeated this evening. After the play dancing will be enjoyed.

Absolute Truth.

The eldest son of a certain family is devoted to a worthy young woman who has the misfortune to be exceedingly stout. The suitor's younger brothers, with a deplorable lack of delicacy, chaff him upon his affection and the absurdity of his appearing in public with a lady of twice his size. But their mother, a woman of wit and humor, not only takes his part, but does it with weapons so sharp that sometimes it is hard to tell which way they cut.

One day the young man announced his intention of going to a lecture that evening.

"Who's going with you?" called the most unbearable of the boys.

"There, my dear," said the mother, "don't ask questions. It's very ill bred."

"But I want to know! I want to know exactly. Say, Harold, who is it?"

"I don't know," said the young man, "but I shall go."

STONE'S JEWELRY STOCK

Will be Sold on Mortgage Thursday, October 21.

The jewelry stock of Harry Stone, of St. Joseph, will be sold at auction under chattel mortgage Thursday, October 21, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

There are five mortgages on the stock, one of $46 in favor of John Wallace, another of $34 held by Gleckert & Newhouse, of Chicago, another of $105 in favor of the Union Banking company of St. Joseph, the fourth of $61 executed to Elsie Watson and the fifth of $933 in favor of Mrs. Harry Stone, wife of the jeweler. Mrs. Stone has the first mortgage.

The sale of the furniture and the entire stock is advertised, and it is thought the proceeds of the sale will scarcely be more than enough to satisfy the first mortgage.

RACE DYING OUT.

STATEMENT OF EMINENT BATTLE CREEK PHYSICIAN.

Dr. J. H. Kellogg of Sanitarium Fame Says we are Going Toward Race Extinction.

At the meeting of the Civic Philanthropic conference at Battle Creek this week, Dr. J. H. Kellogg of the sanitarium read a paper entitled "Are We a Dying Race?" He said in part: "Notwithstanding our marvelous accumulations of wealth and wisdom we are certainly going down physically toward race extinction. Sanitariums pride themselves on having saved millions of lives, thus doubling the average length of human existence, and the credit claimed for sanitary science is justly its due. Nevertheless, we must not see in this great decrease in the average length of human life an indication that by a continuation of the same method human longevity may be indefinitely or even greatly increased. The man who has a sound stomach is able to digest cholera germs as well as other vegetables; thus they are rendered incapable of doing him harm. The gastric juice of a healthy man readily destroys typhoid fever germs, and, in fact germs of every description. The man whose liver is sound is able to combat successfully the poison generated within the body by the invading microbes; whereas the man whose liver has been spoiled by whiskey, tobacco, gormandizing, excessive consumption of effete meats, or blistering condiments succumbs to the onslaught of these diseased germs.

"It is high time that society gave more serious attention to the great class of bankrupts by heredity, from which springs the greater share of crimes and criminals, cranks, lunatics, fanatics and imbeciles.

"The remedy is to be found not in the abolition of public hygiene but in the cultivation of private hygiene. More attention must be given to the training of the individual. Men and women must be made to see that the prevalent conditions of our modern civilization are anti-natural, and tend to the deterioration of the vital powers and the development of disease."

FOUNDERS IN LAKE MICHIGAN.

Crew of the Schooner Kate Winslow Forced to Abandon Her.

MANISTIQUE, Oct. 15.—The schooner Kate Winslow, heavily laden with pig iron, foundered in Lake Michigan off Seul Choix point early yesterday. Capt. E. J. Cuyler and his crew succeeded in reaching the shore without loss of life and made their way to Whitetale, a short distance from this port. The schooner and cargo are a total loss. The Winslow left Gladstone yesterday and was bound for Sandusky, O. She was valued at $15,000.

Roast on Benton Harbor.

Dowagiac Republican: An old gas well at Benton Harbor has been developing signs of producing mineral water, and the owners think a fortune is in sight—if they can organize a stock company to develop it. Almost anything goes down that way, except tunnel railroads.

"I prefer Cleveland's baking powder," writes Miss Bedford, the well-known lecturer on cookery, "because it is pure and wholesome, it takes less for the same baking, it never fails, and bread and cake keep their freshness and flavor."

THIS CITY IN IT.

ADMISSION OF ALGER GUARDS TO STATE MILITIA ASSURED.

Will Fill a Vacancy in the Second Regiment Caused by Retirement of Coldwater.

GRAND RAPIDS, Oct. 15.—The announcement is made from official sources in this city that a shake-up in the companies of the state brigade is imminent. The recent inspection at the state encampment by Gen. Case was very thorough, and careful note was taken concerning the actual standing of each company as regarded finances, equipment, personnel and discipline.

As a result of this inspection it is said five companies in the brigade at the present time are on the verge of discharge for failure to meet requirements in several important particulars. It is stated that the Flint company is among the number, although the names are generally suppressed.

It is likely that the Flint company will be mustered out and will be succeeded by company A, of the Second regiment, which will be transferred from Coldwater. The vacancy created in the Second will be filled by the admission of a new company now formed at Benton Harbor. The White Guards of this city, are likely to succeed company G, Ionia. There are other changes in the schedule, but they have not yet reached the point of public discussion.

CHILKOOT PASS.

CHICAGO MAN ADVISES ST. MICHAEL AS BEST ROUTE.

He Talks Like a Man Interested in the Business of the Steamboat Companies.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—The following letter received from E. C. Harter of Chicago, who is making the trip to Dawson City over Chilkoot pass, was written at Lake Lindeman September 16:

"We found it as you predicted, that the old miners' pass is the one to stick to. We wasted about eight days on the White pass and then gave it up. Not more than 5 out of 100 will get through on the White pass. This one is 1,100 feet higher, and one taking it will wish he had taken the other. The price of packing is 40 cents a pound from Talia (Dyea) to here. We hired a boat-builder to help us on the boat at $15 a day and board. Beans are selling at 65 cents a pound. A boat suitable to go down on Yukon sells for from $300 to $500. We spent one day getting logs, and have been making lumber since with a whipsaw.

There are no Indians packing on the White pass—this, the Chilkoot, is full of them. This camp looks like a shipyard. From three to ten boats go out every day. There are no houses here—all tents. I think there are about 500 persons here yet building boats. Taking everything into consideration, it is cheaper, and very much harder work is avoided by going round by St. Michael, and the proper time to go is in the spring."

CURED OF SCROFULA.

ALLEGAN, Mich., Sept. 3.—For the benefit of suffering humanity I wish to state that for seven years I was a great sufferer from scrofula and blood trouble, having a very bad limb all of those years. My limb was a raw sore from the knee to the ankle, and it had been impossible to find relief or help. My health was very poor from the condition of my blood. After all of these years of suffering I became discouraged and had about given up being any better.

I was advised to call on Drs. B. S. & Co. when at Allegan. They told me they could help me. I believed they knew their business and commenced treatment at that time. This was in 1893. I began to improve at once and continued to improve until my limb was well and my health was good, and I have remained well and I feel that I cannot thank Drs. B. S. & Co. enough for what they have done for me. After seven years with other skillful doctors and to get no better I feel that I must sing their praises. I am in hopes that all sick and afflicted will see Drs. B. S. & Co. before it is too late. They are all right and gentlemen of honor.

MRS. LIZZIE SCHINTZ.
Drs. B. S. & Co. will be at Hotel Benton Wednesday, Oct. 20.

LOOSE BUSINESS WAYS.

The expose in THE EVENING NEWS yesterday in regard to the action of the board of supervisors in allowing the same claim of the St. Joseph Press twice, has created some criticism against the business methods of the county board.

People now wonder, and quite naturally, what other claims have been allowed more than once. The amount that the county taxpayers were about to have stolen from them was not large, only $16.50 in the present case, but if all the business of the board is conducted the same way and all claimants of the county are as careless or dishonest as the Press, then hundreds of dollars have been taken from the county treasurer the same way.

The taxpayers rejoice over the enterprise of THE EVENING NEWS in thus protecting them from a form of robbery, and many congratulations have been sent to this office upon the expose.

Of course the supervisors will try to smooth over the mistake, a mistake that would cause the discharge of an employee in a private business office. They will endeavor to show that they had detected it themselves, but the fact remains that they allowed the same bill the second time and the money would have been filched from the county coffers if THE EVENING NEWS had not discovered the steal.

The supervisors should revise their methods of business.

THIS is the way a New York paper puts it: "The canvass of Henry George, which is supposed to be in the interest of 'the people,' is managed by Tom L. Johnson, one of the biggest monopolists in the country, and there is evidence that his activity is part of a scheme to gobble some valuable franchises in Greater New York in case George is elected. Demagogic movement of this character usually involves something of the Johnson type behind them, and there is nothing to be surprised about."

LATEST SCANDAL AT FT. SHERIDAN.

Report on the Hammond Case Has Reached the Washington Authorities.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Secretary Alger yesterday received the report of an inquiry conducted by Captain Richards into the alleged brutal treatment of Private Hammond by Captain Lovering at Fort Sheridan some days ago. Captain Richards examined a number of persons, including Captain Lovering and Hammond. The testimony of these two witnesses, Secretary Alger says, agrees almost entirely except that Hammond claimed that Capt. Lovering picked him and jabbed him with his sword more times than the latter admits; also that Hammond declares that the captain swore at him, which the latter denies. The testimony of the other witnesses, Secretary Alger says, is mainly corroborative of the main facts of the case.

That of the surgeon who made an examination of Hammond was to the effect that there were some very slight wounds, but not nearly as serious as the prisoner claimed. Colonel Hall, the commandant at Fort Sheridan, practically indorses the action taken by Captain Lovering in the case. Secretary Alger had a consultation with the president about the matter yesterday and will consult further with him about it today. General Miles, commanding the army, took the report home with him for the purpose of reading it over and giving his opinion on the subject to Secretary Alger.

OFF THE ERMINE MORE GOOD NEWS.

Years and Honors Justice Field Retires from the Supreme Bench.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE FACT.

Written to His Associates Giving the President's Reply to His Resignation—Has the Record for Long Service—McKenna His Probable Successor—How Russia Preserves Her Seal and Presumptive High Seal for a National Preserve.

Washington, Oct. 15.—After a service of thirty-four years on the supreme bench Justice Stephen J. Field has retired and his retirement been accepted by the president. The fact was officially announced to the court yesterday in a long letter in which the retiring chief justice reviews the momentous events that have occurred since he took his seat in that august tribunal. Justice Field, it is learned, notified the president last April of his intention to re-

Justice Field, but the president did not acknowledge it until Oct. 9. The letter of announcement is dated Washington, Oct. 15, and addressed to the supreme court. It says: "Near the close of last term, feeling the duties of my office had become too arduous for my strength, I transmitted my resignation to the president, to take effect on the first day of December next, and this he has accepted with kindly expression of regard, as will be seen from a copy of his letter, which is as follows."

President Expresses His Regret.

The letter from the president is dated Oct. 9, 1897, and is as follows: "My Dear Sir:—In April last Chief Justice Fuller, accompanied by Mr. Justice Brewer, handed me your resignation as associate justice of the supreme court of the United States, to take effect Dec. 1, 1897. In hereby accepting your resignation, I wish to express my deep regret that you feel compelled by advancing years to sever your active connection with the court of which you have so long been a distinguished member. Entering upon your great office in May, 1863, you will, on the 1st of next December, have served upon this bench for a period of thirty-four years and seven months, a time longer than that of any member of the court since its creation, and throughout a period of special importance in the history of the country, occupied with as grave public questions as have ever confronted that tribunal for decision.

Congratulates Him on His Service.

"I congratulate you, therefore, most heartily upon a service of such exceptional duration, fidelity and distinction. Nor can I overlook that you received your commission from Abraham Lincoln, and, graciously spared by kind Providence, have survived all the members of the court of his appointment. Upon your retirement both the bench and the country will sustain a great loss, but the high character and great ability of your work will live and long be remembered not only by your colleagues, but by your grateful fellow-countrymen. With personal esteem and sincere best wishes for your contentment and happiness during the period of rest which you have so well earned, I am, dear sir, very truly yours, "WILLIAM McKINLEY."

TAKES A LOOK BACKWARD.

Justice Field's Review of His Own Career—McKenna to Succeed.

Justice Field continues his letter to his associates as follows: "My judicial career covers many years of service. I have been elected a member of the court of California, I assumed office Oct. 13, 1857, holding it for three years, seven months and five days. After part of the time being chief justice, I was succeeded by Mr. Lincoln on the 10th of March, 1863. I came to the court of the United States by President Lincoln's nomination, and on the following May, 1863, I took the oath of office. My nomination takes effect my service on this bench will be thirty-four years and seven months. I feel that of any of my predecessors, while my entire judicial life has embraced more than forty years. I may be pardoned for saying that during all this period, long in comparison with the brevity of human life, though in the retrospect it has gone with the swiftness of a tale that is told, I have not shunned to declare in every case coming before me for decision the conclusions which my deliberate convictions compelled me to arrive at by the conscientious exercise of such ability and acquirements as I possessed."

"As I look back over the more than a third of a century that I have sat on this bench, I am more and more impressed with the immeasurable importance of this court. Now and then we hear it spoken of as an aristocratic institution of a republican government. But it is the most Democratic of all. Senators represent their states and representatives their constituents, but this court stands for the whole country, and it is truly 'of the people, by the people and for the people.' It has indeed the power to legislate. It cannot appropriate a dollar of money. It carries out the laws, but it does not make them. It is the power of deciding the law, and it is the power of deciding the law."

Notwithstanding So Many People Who Are Testing Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills Have Already Reported, the Number Increases Daily.

All Say They Have Received Great Benefit and Feel That a Speedy and Permanent Cure Will Follow.

The Test is Regarded on All Sides as a Great Success.

Although it is but a short time ago since the great free distribution of Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills was made in this city, numerous highly favorable reports of the benefits derived from using the samples are coming in every day. The demand for this great kidney remedy is exceeding all expectations. Those who obtained samples are returning to purchase full boxes—all with a pleased confidence in their speedy recovery from disease.

This condition prevails also in the surrounding country, from whence many applications were received for samples.

Reports of tests in this city and vicinity so far have gone to show that Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills produce favorable results with a degree of quickness heretofore unknown in the treatment of kidney and bladder diseases and all ailments arising therefrom.

People who have dosed themselves with all kinds of so-called kidney medicines, until not only their kidneys, but their entire system is in a state of prostration, should not expect to be cured in a day or two, by Dr. Hobbs' grand remedy, however great his claims may be. The man who would advertise to cure Bright's disease—that fearful, insidious and dangerous ailment—in a few hours,—should be drummed out of town as an impostor and a man trifling with human life. The modesty of Dr. Hobbs' claims is one thing that especially commends him and his remedy to the public.

What Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills are designed and guaranteed to do:

They soothe, heal and cure any inflammation of the kidneys and bladder. They cure Backache.

They cause the kidneys to filter out of the blood all poisons and impurities, whether made in the system or taken in from the outside.

They render sluggish kidneys active. They cause the kidneys to cast out the poison of rheumatism (uric acid), the disease germs of malaria and the grippe.

They cause the kidneys to keep the blood pure and clean, and thus prevent neuralgia, headache, dizziness, nervous dyspepsia, skin diseases, eruptions, scales, tetter and rashes.

They cause the kidneys to work steadily and regularly.

They dissolve and cast out brickdust and phosphate deposits and dissolve gravel and calculi in both the kidneys and bladder.

They cure Bright's disease.

They cause the kidneys to rapidly rid the system of the poisons of alcohol and tobacco.

They yield a clear mind, sweet sleep, steady nerves, active bodies, brimful of the zest and happiness of living, bright eyes and rosy cheeks, because they keep the blood free from poisons and impurities that would otherwise clog and irritate it.

Healthy kidneys make pure blood. Pure blood makes perfect health. Perfect health guaranteed to all who use Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills.

government, and it is an additional assurance when the power is in such hands as yours."

The members of the supreme court all joined in a letter of regret to the justice, conveying a graceful tribute to his services on the bench.

After the adjournment of the court yesterday the justices and the officers of the court called in a body at Justice Field's house and took official leave of the retiring justice. Though the resignation does not take effect until the 1st of December it is the understanding that Justice Field will not resume his seat on the bench during the interim. The president apparently has not decided yet upon the appointments that Justice Field's retirement will occasion, save that Attorney General McKenna will be nominated for the supreme bench unless some cause intervenes between now and December to prevent it. McKenna has made some inquiries of political callers which have led them to believe that his mind is pretty well made up on McKenna as the next justice of the supreme court, but to none of them so far as can be learned did he mention the matter of a new attorney general.

ANGELINA'S FLIGHT

How the Rescue of Miss Cisneros
Was Accomplished, as Told by Karl Decker.

HE ENGINEERED THE JAIL-BREAK.

Alcalde Who Came Too High, Demanding $10,000 and Ironclad Passports—The Girl's Risky Walk to the Quay, Smoking a Cigar and Clad in Male Habillments—Decker Finds the Spaniards Very Easy to Fool When His Turn Comes.

New York, Oct. 15.—Karl Decker, one of the rescuers of Evangelina Cossio y
Cisneros from the Casa de Recojidas, Havana, arrived in this city on the Spanish line steamship Panama yesterday afternoon. He was met down the bay by a number of newspaper men and said: "I was commissioned to go to Cuba and deliver Senorita Cossio y Cisneros from the filthy Recojidas prison. I started from New York Aug. 25, determined to free the woman, though I did not see my way clear as to the plan to be adopted. After reaching Havana many plans suggested themselves to me, but each one proved impracticable. I tried to bribe the jailer, or alcalde, but he wanted $10,000 for the job and positive assurances that he and his family could get to the United States. This was too rich a proposition for me." Decker repeated the story of the rescue from the jail as already told in these dispatches and then related what happened after the girl was out of the prison.

From the Jail to a Reception.
He said: "When Senorita Cossio y Cisneros entered our shanty adjoining the jail we let her rest a few moments and then took her to a carriage waiting outside and drove to the house of a friend.
The friend was holding a reception that night, which was a part of the plot. The man who drove the carriage was one of the conspirators. Senorita Cossio y Cisneros was exhausted from excitement when she reached the house, but she did not give way. On Thursday morning she was taken to the house of a friend where she remained in secrecy until Saturday afternoon.

Had to Take a Risky Chance.
"To reach the steamer for New York she was obliged to walk down Obispo street, the principal thoroughfare of Havana, at a time when the street was crowded, and yet take her time and smoke a cigar. If she had skulked about the back streets she would immediately have been suspected. It was over a mile from the house to the pier. She had a passport made out under an assumed name. All the steamships anchor out in the stream. Senorita Cossio y Cisneros walked down from the house clad as a rancher, and my companion and I followed. She sauntered along leisurely and once in a while turned about to see if we were following. We motioned her to go on. She grew more confident as she went along, but we could see that she was under a strain. She got on the launch and we waited, and when the launch returned from the vessel and she was not on it we knew that the scheme had worked like a charm."

DECKER COMES UNDER SUSPICION.

Gets Out of Havana Just the Way the Spaniards Did Not Suspect.

"The day after the jail-break the town was astir over the escape of Senorita Cossio y Cisneros. A house-to-house search was begun and would have been kept up had not a telegram from Minister Dupuy de Lome at Washington informed Weyler that the girl was on the high seas and expected any day in New York. Then Weyler was mad.
He threw the jailer, Jose Quintana, into jail, whereupon the jailer told about my attempting to bribe him. This in connection with the surmise of De Lome placed suspicion on me. I gave it out that I was going to take a steamer for Mexico. There was only one steamer leaving Sunday, and that was a Spanish steamer. I waited for instructions from New York and had almost made up my mind to start Sunday, instructions or no instructions. My instructions came, happily.

"My passport was made out in the name of Karl Decker. In order to take the Panama Sunday night and run the gauntlet I must get my passport vised and stamped with the seal of the secretary of the captain general. I knew that my passport would never be signed, and I learned that an order for my arrest was determined on, and that I was to be arrested at 5 o'clock Monday morning. I was in a bad pickle.
I got a glimpse of the writing of Senor Carvalho, the secretary of Weyler, and copied it so that I had it down fine.
Then I forced the vice signature. I determined to do without the seal. At the last moment I went to the wharf and took the launch for the steamship.
The inspector looked at my passport and asked where the seal was. I assumed a nonchalant air as best I could and told him that Senor Carvalho was at the Inglaterra hotel, and having no seal he signed his name to a statement saying it was all right. The inspector hesitated and showed the signature to another inspector, and he said all right and I was safe.

"The Spanish authorities never thought for a moment that I would take a Spanish steamer. Nearly all the Americans take the American line.
They did not think to guard the Panama and watch for me. They arrest all prisoners at 5 o'clock in the morning.
They were sure I would be in town on Monday and they were fooled." Senorita Cisneros received a number of visitors at the Hotel Waldorf yesterday, among them General Julio Sanguly, Henry George, Tom L. Johnson and ex-Postmaster Charles W. Dayton.

JUDGE COOLIDGE DECIDES THE HICKORY CREEK DRAIN CASE.

The Proceedings Are Illegal, Which Decision Favors the Contestants.

Judge Coolidge advised the county clerk this morning that he had decided the Hickory Creek drain case in favor of the contestants, thus declaring illegal the proceedings taken by the drain commissioner in the establishment of the drain. The judge said he would submit his formal findings in the case within a few days. The case will be appealed to the supreme court. Judge Coolidge's opinion is awaited with considerable anxiety as those interested are anxious to know what particular flaws the court found in the proceedings.

A DARK TRAGEDY.

GUY BOSWELL AND WARREN PUTERBAUGH ARE THE VICTIMS.

Contents of a Double Barrelled Shot Gun Discharged in Their Bodies.

Guy Boswell and Warren Puterbaugh of St. Joseph, are suffering acutely today from serious gun shot wounds inflicted by an unknown person last night while they were out boating on the St. Joseph river. Puterbaugh was in a critical condition late last night and the attending physician expressed grave doubts of his recovery. He is better today. Three shots entered his body, one lodging in his left lung and the other two in the muscles of his leg. None of the bullets can be reached with a physician's probe. Boswell carries a bullet in his neck. His condition is not so serious. Both men are married and live with their families in St. Joseph.

The story of the tragedy is mysterious. The victims left St. Joseph in a boat about 7:30 o'clock in the evening. It was nearly 10 o'clock when they were carried to their homes wounded and bleeding. They claim that they were merely out for a pleasure trip and that while returning home they were fired upon along the shore of the island opposite Spink's resort. Puterbaugh was on the land pulling the boat along with a rope and Boswell was doing the steering. Suddenly two shots were fired in rapid succession and Boswell saw his companion fall. The shots were fired from the direction of Spink's resort and looking up Boswell saw a man running rapidly away toward the resort. Boswell called to him, he says, but the man paid no heed to the cry.

Puterbaugh was helped into the boat by his companion, who did the rowing, his injuries being less serious than those of Puterbaugh. Dr. Boswell's injuries were dressed by Dr. Boswell. There is disposition to discredit the story told by the injured men, the theory being that they are concealing the real facts in the case. Norman Carruthers, a colored man employed on Dr. Parker's farm south of St. Joseph, tells another story. He says the two men were trespassing on Mr. Parker's place and believing they intended mischief he shot them and hurriedly advised Dr. Parker of St. Joseph of the affair and the men were assisted home by Mr. Carruthers. Considerable fruit has been stolen from the Parker place this summer.

OLD GLORY WAVES

NEW OWNER OF OLD COURT HOUSE IS PATRIOTIC.

J. Sherlock Allen Put the Stars and Stripes Afloat Over His New Purchase This Morning.

BERRIEN SPRINGS, Oct. 15.—Old Glory once more waves over the old court house in this village today, and the citizens are reminded of the time when the county business was transacted in the building.

There is rejoicing here that J. Sherlock Allen has purchased the buildings and that they will be remodeled and made helpful in the growth of the village. Mr. Allen is happy too as is shown by the fact that he lost no time in floating the stars and stripes over his new purchase.

WAS IN ALASKA.

DR. KIRKPATRICK IMPARTING INFORMATION TO CITIZENS.

He Knows Much of Klondike Gold Country and Will Return in the Early Spring.

D. Kirkpatrick is in the city visiting his daughter, the wife of Conductor Cullen on the street car line. About a year ago he returned from Alaska just before the rich strikes were made on the Klondike. He is in consultation here with the Benton Harbor & Alaska mining and investment company and possibly may accompany their expedition to the north. He is also figuring with a Kalamazoo company.

Mr. Kirkpatrick went to Alaska over Chilkoot pass and through the White Horse rapids. He says that a greater source of suffering than the cold is the mosquito pest in the summer.

LET "WIFEY" SHOP FOR YOU

She Always Has a Sharper Nose For Real Bargains.

The sign which caught Mrs. Dawson's eye read: "Suits $30. Positively the Last Week. Regular Price $80." Mrs. Dawson had the womanly love for a bargain. She had often spent 10 cents' car fare to secure some lovely treasure that was marked down from $1 to 98 cents just for that day. She was more than provoked that Dawson, who was with her, did not grow enthusiastic.

"You know you need a suit," said Mrs. Dawson. "Why not order it now and save $10."

Dawson was certain the suits would be as cheap next week, but his wife refused to move on and dragged the helpless man into the store. The polite clerk assured them that it was the bargain of the century and that this week was positively the last.

With mental protests, but with outward calm, Dawson, like clay in the hands of the potter, allowed himself to be measured. Then he left a deposit. He called in four days and took the suit away.

"There," exclaimed Mrs. Dawson, in triumph, when her husband appeared arrayed in his new suit, "you never had a better fit nor a more becoming pattern. Just think how much money your wife saved for you by being on the lookout for a bargain!"

Mr. Dawson preserved a dignified silence and waited patiently for his better half to get her hat on straight preparatory to accompanying him to the city.

Mrs. Dawson awaited with impatience the passing of the store where she had saved money for her husband. She wanted to call his attention to the fact again that he might remain properly thankful.

With all the faith of a woman Mrs. Dawson was convinced that the salesman was telling the truth when he assured her it was the last week of the $30 sale.

She looked for the window, and her faith was rewarded. It had been the last week. The sign now read, "Any Suit In This Window $15."—Chicago Record.
